1 INTRODUCTION

Specialist Education Services is committed to the highest standards of quality, honesty, openness and accountability.

As an employee you have an important role in achieving this goal. Employees will usually be the first to know when someone in the organisation is doing something illegal or improper but often feel worried about voicing their concerns. We have created this policy and procedure document to cover the reporting of any genuine concerns you may have about suspected misconduct within the organisation.

This document makes it clear this can be done without fear of victimisation, subsequent discrimination or disadvantage. It is intended to encourage and enable all employees to raise serious concerns within the establishment rather than overlooking a problem or 'blowing the whistle' outside.

This policy conforms to the guidance in the Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998 (PIDA). PIDA encourages you to raise concerns internally in the first instance.

2 SCOPE OF THIS POLICY

This Policy does not replace the SES Complaints and Representations Policy and Practice procedures or the SES Grievance Capability and Disciplinary procedures. These contain existing procedures to enable staff to lodge a grievance relating to their own employment. This Disclosure Policy is intended to cover concerns that fall outside the scope of that procedure.

It is impossible to give an exhaustive list of the activities that constitute misconduct or malpractice but broadly speaking we would expect you to report the following:

- Criminal offences
- Failure to comply with legal obligations
- Actions that endanger the health or safety of employees or the public,
- Working outside agreed Policy and Practice.
- Actions which cause damage to the environment
- The unauthorised use of assets or funds
- Manipulation of accounting records and finances
- Possible fraud and corruption
- Decision-making for personal gain
- Abuse of position
- Misconduct or malpractice
- Sexual or physical abuse of young people or employees
- Other unethical conduct
- Actions which are intended to conceal any of the above

The policy is primarily for concerns where the interests of others or of the organisation itself are at risk. If in doubt – raise it!

It is the duty of every member of staff to speak up about genuine concerns in relation to the above. It applies whether or not the information is confidential. Specialist Education Services is committed to ensuring that any staff concerns of this nature will be taken seriously and investigated. A disclosure to the Directors will be protected if the member of staff has an honest and reasonable suspicion that the malpractice has occurred, is occurring or is likely to occur. Staff who raise concerns reasonably and responsibly will not be penalised in any way.

3 WHO IS THIS POLICY FOR

This policy is for people employed by Specialist Education Services. For the purposes of this policy only, this is someone who is:

- Employed on a permanent or fixed term contract of employment;
- On secondment to SES;
- On a temporary contract or employed through an agency to work for SES;
- An independent consultant for SES; or
- Contractors and suppliers of services to SES.

Personnel not employed by SES would be expected to use the Complaints and Representations procedures.

4 HOW WE WILL HANDLE THE MATTER

Any individual who has reasonable suspicions of malpractice should initially take their concerns to their line manager within the Management Team. If they do not feel that this is the appropriate person, they should approach another Manager or go directly to the Registered Manager or Principal. If any of these routes are impossible for any reason a direct approach to the Executive Principal or Directors is appropriate. If the issue concerns one or other of the Executive Principal or Directors then the Principal should be informed immediately and he/she will be responsible for involving the Executive Principal and/or Director not implicated in the allegation.

Once you have told us of your concern, we will look into it carefully and thoroughly to assess what action, if any, should be taken. Depending on the nature of your concern, this may mean an internal inquiry or a more formal investigation. We will tell you who your point of contact will be and whether we will need further assistance from you. We may ask you how you think your concern should be best dealt with. If you have a personal interest in the matter we would ask that you tell us at the outset. Whilst we will try to give you as much feedback as possible, we may not be able to give you specific details as this could infringe upon the privacy of another individual.

We cannot guarantee that we will respond to all concerns in the way that you might wish, but we will try to handle the matter fairly and properly. By using this policy you will help us to achieve this.

It is recognised that for some individuals, raising a concern under this procedure may be a daunting and difficult experience. An individual may choose to be accompanied or represented by a colleague at any stage of this procedure. All reported incidents will be investigated. All reports will be dealt with in confidence, with only staff that need to know, being informed.

The Senior Manager, or whoever has been approached, will establish and record the basis of the concerns that have been raised and establish what further actions are required, using the confidential reporting form designed for that purpose and kept on the internal network. The individual raising the concern will be advised of the outcome of the investigation as soon as possible, normally within two weeks of the date of their disclosure. Where a longer period is needed for investigation, the member of staff will be informed in writing. The Executive Principal and Directors will be informed of all reported disclosures and the actions being taken.

If an individual is not satisfied with the response received and any subsequent action taken, they should put their concerns in writing to the Executive Principal who will liaise with the Directors, and arrange any further investigation as they think appropriate. The Directors will send a written response to the individual concerned.

5 ANONYMOUS ALLEGATIONS

This Policy encourages you to put your name to your allegation whenever possible. Concerns expressed anonymously are much less powerful but will be considered at the discretion of the Directors.

In exercising this discretion, the facts to be taken into account would include:

- the seriousness of the issues raised;
- the credibility of the concern; and
- the likelihood of confirming the allegation from attributable sources.

6 UNTRUE ALLEGATIONS

If you make an allegation in good faith, but it is not confirmed by the investigation, no action will be taken against you. In making a disclosure the individual should take care to ensure the accuracy of the information. If you make an allegation frivolously, maliciously, mischievously or for personal gain, disciplinary action may be taken against you.

7 WHAT ARE OUR GUIDING PRINCIPLES?

To ensure that this policy is adhered to, and to assure staff that the concern will be taken seriously, SES will:

- Not allow the person raising the concern to be victimised for doing so;
- Treat victimisation of whistle blowers as a serious matter, that may lead to disciplinary action that may include dismissal;
- Not attempt to conceal evidence of poor or unacceptable practice;
- Take disciplinary action if an employee destroys or conceals evidence of poor or unacceptable practice or misconduct;

- Ensure confidentiality clauses in employment contracts do not restrict, forbid or penalise whistleblowing;
- Liaise with the Department for Education and other organisations to which staff report malpractice.

8 EXTERNAL CONTACTS

Employees' contracts require that staff do not disclose confidential information. This also applies to false or misleading information. In considering taking a concern outside the company, you should be aware of your duty of confidentiality and you should consider whether reporting the concern externally, without first giving the company the opportunity to look into the matter, is the reasonable course of action.

Due to the national profile of child protection issues, employees should be mindful of discussions outside of SES, particularly in public places, that may cause alarm and lead to external professionals or members of the public raising concerns without the full context of the level of complexity and needs of our young people. This can be triggered accidentally by others overhearing a casual conversation without understanding or having a fuller picture.

We hope this policy gives you the reassurances you need to raise concerns internally, but if you still feel uneasy, we would rather you raised a concern with the appropriate body than not at all.
